PROGRAM Nineteenth Annual FARMERS' WEEK February 8-13, 1926

New York
State College of Agriculture

Ithaca, New York
Published by the University
January 1, 1926

INFORMATION

Railroad rates.—The following railroads have granted reduced rates (one and one-half fare, round trip, with a minimum of twenty-five cents) to Ithaca for Farmers' Week. These tickets will be on sale for February 7 to 13, inclusive, and will be good returning until February 15.

The Delaware and Hudson and the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh, from points in New York State.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, the Erie, and the New York, Ontario and Western, and the Pennsylvania, from points in New York State except New York City.

The New York Central and West Shore, from points in New York State except New York City and Putnam division.

The Lehigh Valley, from Tunkhannock, Pennsylvania, to Suspension Bridge, New York, inclusive, and also including branches.

Information bureau and police protection.—Visitors may apply to the information bureau on the first floor of Roberts Hall for mail and information. Lost and found articles should be reported here. Police protection is under the supervision of Lieutenant T. H. Twisten, Proctor of Cornell University, late of the Philadelphia Police Department.

Registration.—Visitors are requested to register in Roberts Hall and to procure a program. Former students should indicate that fact on the registration card and give their occupation.

Mr. A. W. Gibson, of the Farm Practice Office, is collecting information on former students of the College, and will be glad to assist them in getting information about their classmates and acquaintances.

Room and board.—A directory of available rooming and boarding places may be found in Roberts Hall, first floor. Plans have been made to insure comfortable accommodations for all visitors.

Checking room.—In the basement of Stone Hall is a room in which coats and parcels may be checked free of charge. Checking facilities will also be provided in Home Economics 110.

Lecture rooms and laboratories.—The rooms of the buildings of the Colleges of Agriculture and Home Economics are numbered independently. All rooms on the first floor bear numbers in the first hundred, those on the second floor in the second hundred, and so on. The location of demonstrations and lectures is indicated by giving the name of the building and the number of the room; thus, Roberts 392 is a lecture room on the third floor of Roberts Hall.

Guides to campus and farm.—Parties of five or more will be furnished guides to points of interest on the university campus and farm, by applying to the information bureau.

Meals.—The cafeteria in the Home Economics Building is open from 7.15 to 9.30 a. m., from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m., and from 5 to 7 p. m. Lunches or full meals may be procured at regular cafeteria prices. In addition there is a lunch counter in the basement of Roberts Hall, and luncheon service in the forestry club-room in Fernow Hall, and on the first floor of the Animal Husbandry Building.

Conventions and conferences.—Conventions and conferences meeting during Farmers' Week are open to all persons.

VISUAL INSTRUCTION, EXTENSION SERVICE

The College maintains a loan-lantern-slide service. The collection embraces approximately 6000 slides on some sixty topics relating to farm problems and rural life. These are available to residents of the State for return transportation charges only. They are especially adapted to the use of grange lecturers, rural pastors, high-school teachers of agriculture, and other leaders in the field of agricultural education. A catalog and further detailed information will be gladly furnished. Those interested should inquire for Mr. Kirkland, Roberts Hall, Room 164, daily, 10-4.

Catalogs of the offerings by leading commercial companies and government offices are on file. There are over two hundred separate sources of educational films. Many of these films are furnished for the transportation charges only.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

The winter courses close with Farmers' Week. In these courses are many students who desire farm work. About the same time, a few students in the regular course complete their work in the College. Among these are many who have always lived and worked on farms when not in school. Some of them are from twenty-four to thirty years of age, and have had sufficient experience to fit them to bear the responsibility of running farms as superintendents or managers; and these, of course, should expect pay considerably above ordinary rates for farm hands. Others have had less, but nevertheless good, experience, and can fill places as foremen and experienced farm hands. Still others have had little experience on farms and should expect little pay at first. It is suggested that the inexperienced men be engaged at very little pay at first, but with the understanding that their pay be increased as they demonstrate their efficiency.

It is planned to have students meet farmers daily (except Wednesday) at one o'clock at the Office of Farm Practice and Farm Superintendence, in East Roberts, to arrange for employment. Further information may be obtained at any time from the Office. It is requested that farmers who desire to hire student help while in Ithaca correspond with the Office in advance, and call at the Office as soon as possible after arriving at Ithaca.

EXHIBITS

Animal Husbandry.—Feeds, feeding, and feed mixtures will be shown in the Judging Pavillion Annex. Professor Savage or Mr. Krauss will be in attendance for conference and discussion. Persons interested will find here information about the correspondence courses given by the Department.

Members of the Animal Husbandry Staff will be in their offices for conferences and individual discussions at 4.30 p. m. daily.

Correspondence courses.—The office of farm study courses—to enable farmers, poultrymen, dairymen, fruit growers, vegetable gardeners, beekeepers, and others to learn the latest facts about their industries—may be found in the basement of Roberts Hall. Here the supervisor of the courses may be interviewed every morning by those who are taking, or have taken, or expect to take any of the various courses offered.

Entomology.—An exhibit of mounted mammals, of photographs, and of devices illustrating the relation of mammals of New York State to agriculture, with the best methods of controlling destructive species and of encouraging desirable ones. Roberts 301.

Farm management.—Exhibit of state-wide cooperative organizations. This exhibit will consist of individual exhibits illustrating the work of important cooperative business organizations operating in this State. It is expected that exhibits will be furnished by the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association, Inc., the Cooperative Grange League Federation Exchange Association, Inc., the Federal Land Bank of Springfield, and other farmers' organizations. There will also be a farm-management and marketing exhibit prepared by the Department of Agricultural Economics and Farm Management of the College. East Roberts 232.

Persons interested will find here information about the correspondence courses given by the Department.

Floriculture and ornamental horticulture.—Exhibit of ornamental nursery stock grown from seed, cuttings, and grafts. This exhibit will show both standard methods of plant propagation and average sizes of one-, two-, and three-year-old stock.

The greenhouses will be open for inspection from 9 to 5 daily, and special attendants will be in charge to answer questions.

Forestry.—The Forestry Department is presenting "King White Pine" in a special exhibit, in Fernow 118. Important features of the life history, the growth, the management, the utilization, and the protection of this valuable timber tree will be on display. Members of the staff will be on hand daily from 9 to 5 to answer questions.

The Museum in Fernow basement will also be open to visitors at the regular hours.

Home economics.—Books and bulletins on Home Economic subjects. Room 265

Clothing: Dress and dress accessories. Room 305.

Household art: Pictures for the home from the Federation of Arts, New York City. Fourth floor.

Winter decorations and arrangement. Fourth floor.

Foods and nutrition: Rat exhibit, illustrating principles of human nutrition.

Laboratory demonstrations: Vegetable cookery and basic muffin recipes; given alternately Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, 10.30 a. m. to 1 p. m. Dr. Nasson, Miss Fenton, and students. Room 270.

Household management: Household labor-saving equipment. Room 300.

Horseshoeing.—An exhibit of material pertaining to scientific horseshoeing and of other material of interest to horsemen. Professor Asmus will be present to discuss problems of shoeing. Veterinary College Farriery.

Mailing rooms.—The mailing rooms are open for inspection from 9 to 5 daily.

Plant breeding.—Grain show. Members of the New York Seed Improvement Cooperative Association, Inc. will exhibit samples of grain which they have grown this year. Ten-ear samples of corn and peck samples of oats, barley, wheat, and rye will be shown. These exhibits will be judged on the basis of the value for seed purposes, as evidenced by field- and bin-inspection records, as well as on their appearance from the show standpoint.

Corn. Exhibit of several strains isolated from a single variety of corn by in-breeding. Uniformity of the ears within a given strain is very marked.

Small grains. Typical plants and threshed grain of the several varieties of oats, barley, wheat, and rye recommended by the Department will be shown. There will be charts showing relative yields of these varieties in tests at Ithaca and in various parts of the State.

Potatoes. A graphic representation of the increase in yield obtained by hill selection in Erie County.

Clover. An exhibit showing the greater yield and the better quality of hay obtained from domestic, or home-grown, seed as compared to that from European seed.

Timothy. Relative yields of the recommended strains of timothy compared to commercial seed, graphically presented by proportional size bales.

All Plant Breeding exhibits will be in Fernow 206.

Pomology.—The Department of Pomology will have on display a large number of apple varieties. The exhibit will include the standard commercial sorts, as well as those that are less well known. The Baldwins, Greenings, Northern Spys, Pumpkin Sweets, and Russets will be grouped together, and visitors will have an opportunity to compare these older, well-known varieties with the newer sorts, such as McIntosh, Cortland, Delicious, and Starking. Although hundreds of varieties have been brought into cultivation, there are none at present that can satisfactorily fill the place of the Baldwin and the Rhode Island Greening in New York orchards. East Roberts 108.

Poultry.—New York State Egg Show:

1. Classes for white and brown eggs.
 - a. For New York State Poultrymen.
 - b. For Junior Project Workers.
2. A special study of the inheritance factors in egg production and of their economic relations.
3. Opportunity for competitive judging of eggs for both external and internal qualities.

Marketing poultry and eggs. Shipping appliances; best methods of preparation for market and packing; crates for safest transportation and highest prices. Egg Room, Poultry Building.

Market prices and methods of transportation and marketing, shown by charts and illuminated lantern slides. Main entrance and corridor, first floor. Poultry Building.

Incubators, brooders, and the latest Cornell brooder house, fitted up for use as a brooder and also for a pedigreed breeding flock. Handy poultry appliances, catching crates, feed hoppers, water-warming devices, illumination equipment, and the like. Poultry Mechanics Room, first floor; also, outdoors, north of Poultry Building.

Breed improvement. Methods of selecting hens, pullets, and males for production, by means of their external characters, illustrated by live birds, colored charts, illuminated lantern slides, and the like. Poultry 350.

Poultry records. Financial records, pedigree-hatching records, methods of keeping records, and factors influencing profits on poultry farms. Poultry 325.

Illumination. Appliances, methods of installation of wiring systems, and results, shown by models and colored charts. Handling breeders under illumination, and the effect of illumination upon fertility and hatching quality of the eggs. Selection of fowls for best results under illumination. Poultry Mechanics Room, first floor.

Enlarged map of New York State, showing the extent of the poultry industry, poultry organizations, and poultry educational activities. Corridor of Poultry Building, second floor.

Persons interested will find here information about the correspondence courses given by the Department.

Publications.—The mailing room of the Colleges of Agriculture and Home Economics is open in the basement of Roberts Hall. Here visitors may obtain lists of publications, or the bulletins themselves, on a wide variety of topics.

A showing of the various activities and printed matter issued from the office of publication is on view in the basement of Roberts Hall in Room 51.

Many of the newspapers of the State, mainly weeklies, are displayed in Stone Hall 192, on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. These are entered in the annual newspaper contest for best appearance and contents; visitors may wish to see how their home-town paper compares with others in the State.

Rural engineering.—Domestic equipment. Water-supply outfits for the farm home, both electrically and gasoline driven; electric lighting and small power outfits for the farm home; pumps; plumbing and gravity water system for kitchen and bathroom. Rural Engineering Laboratory.

Farm Shop. Wood-working tools, metal-working tools; tool racks; farm-shop supplies; storage shelves. Rural Engineering Laboratory.

Farm power. Modern tractors; single and four-cylinder gasoline engines; Ford automobile engine with starter, lights, and wiring on open stand; tractor transmission cut open; old Ford automobile engine mounted as a stationary power plant. Rural Engineering Laboratory.

Rural schools.—The rural-school exhibit will consist of a collection of the work done by the rural schools of the State during the last year. The material shown is largely based upon the 1925 numbers of the Cornell Rural School Leaflet, so that the visitors of last year may be assured of an entirely new collection of evidence of the work being done in rural schools. Fernow 8.

United States Weather Bureau.—Charts and maps illustrating the collection of weather information, the preparation of weather maps, and the distribution of forecasts in New York State. Roberts 442.

Vegetable gardening.—4-H potato club show. Poultry 174. The potato show this year will be limited to Junior Project workers. The show will include only county exhibits and each exhibit will consist of twenty plate samples of five tubers each, grown by regularly enrolled 4-H potato club members. No two plate samples within an exhibit shall have been grown by the same club member. On Friday, February 12, beginning at 9 o'clock Professor E. V. Hardenburg will give a lecture demonstration on selecting, preparing, and judging potato exhibits.

UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

The University Library.—The university library contains about six hundred thousand bound volumes, placed in the University Library Building located at the southwest corner of the quadrangle. The hall and the large reading room contain rare manuscripts, pictures, and many other things of great interest.

The Zoological Museum.—The zoological museum contains mounted specimens of many different kinds of animals from all parts of the world. It is located on the second and third floors of McGraw Hall.

The Museum of Casts.—The museum of casts contains a large collection of casts illustrating the history of Greek and Roman sculptural art. It is located in the basement of Goldwin Smith Hall.

Sage Chapel.—Sage Chapel is located south and east of the library. The chapel is handsomely decorated, and is one of the most beautiful chapels in America.

Barnes Hall.—Barnes Hall is one of the centers of the religious work of the University, and is the home of the Cornell University Christian Association. It contains a large Biblical library and reading room. There are also rest rooms.
